

Above: Pikunni tipi transfer, at the end of the ceremony, Browning, 1992. From left: Melinda (Bull Shoe) Kipp, George G.G. Kipp, Mike Swims Under, George Kicking Woman, Joe Crow Shoe, Paul Raczka, Conrad La Framboise.

Opposite page:

Top: This race horse was the main payment given by G.G. Kipp to Paul Raczka for the transfer of the Person-painted lodge in 1992. Jason Crow Shoe looks on in the background, on the right.

Bottom: G.G. Kipp thanks Joe Crow Shoe for his help in transferring the Person-painted lodge. Joe was also the Sun Dance priest when G.G. Kipp put up his first Medicine Lodge, giving them a spiritual father-son relationship.

Both pages: AHW Photos

